

1. Overview

This Information Statement is about two types of investments that the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle Catholic Development Fund (CDF) offers:

- § Associate Saver Account; and
- § Notice Saver Account.

The key differences between these investments are that where you have a Notice Saver Account, you may only withdraw your funds upon giving us at least 31 days' notice and you must sign an Investor Acknowledgement Statement.

Provided you qualify as a person entitled to invest in an Associate Saver Account, you do not need to give us 31 days' notice to withdraw from your Associate Saver Account.

2. Terms and Conditions

How your investment works

The Associate Saver Account and Notice Saver Account are debentures issued by The Trustees of the Roman Catholic Church for the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle ABN 62 089 182 027 on behalf of the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle Catholic Development Fund ABN 59 728 447 508. The balance held in your Associate Saver Account and Notice Saver Account is a debt owed to you by us with a promise to return your principal sum and interest.

Who can invest in the Associate Saver Account

The Associate Saver Account is only available to:

- § a Catholic Employee;
- § Catholic organisations
- § Clergy

A 'Catholic Employee' is an employee of any Catholic Organisation.

'Catholic Organisations' are those organisations listed in the Catholic directory www.catholicdirectory.com.au/ including catholic education, orders, public juridic persons, congregations, clergy / training clergy who have a same or similar charitable purpose as The Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle.

Students and Parishioners who are not Catholic Employees are only eligible for the Notice Saver Account and cannot invest an Associate Saver Account.

If you are no longer eligible for an Associate Saver Account (for example, you are no longer employed by a Catholic Organisation), you must promptly notify us by no later than 10 working days of cessation of your eligibility.

Once we receive your notification, your Associate Saver Account will be converted to a Notice Saver Account and you will need to give us 31 days' notice before you can withdraw your funds. You will also need to sign an Investor Acknowledgement Statement (see below).

Who can invest in a Notice Saver Account

Any person or entity can invest in our Notice Saver Account. The Notice Saver Account is designed for investors who wish to support the charitable and religious works of the Catholic Church.

What is the minimum initial investment

The minimum initial investment required to open an Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account is $100.00.

We also have a Notice Saver Account for students which we refer to as our "Notice Saver Student Account". The minimum investment amount for the Notice Saver Student Account is $20.00.

All investments must be made in Australian Dollars.

How to make an investment

You have four options to arrange for payments into your Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account:

1. a one-off payment via Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) or direct credit to your Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account;
2. you can establish a regular payment arrangement (for example, weekly, fortnightly or monthly) directly with your Authorised Deposit Taking Institution (ADI) (an example of an ADI is a bank) via a periodical payment;
3. establish a Direct Debit with us by filling out the form at <http://www.cdfmn.com.au/forms>
4. send a cheque to Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle Catholic Development Fund, Attn. Customer Service Team, 841 Hunter St, Newcastle West NSW 2302; or

If you are making your investment by direct debit, the bank account nominated must be in the same name as the name in which your Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account is held.

Additional requirement for investing in Notice Saver Account - Investor Acknowledgement Statement

Any person investing in a Notice Saver Account must first sign an Investor Acknowledgement Statement before we can open the Notice Saver Account. This is located at <http://www.cdfmn.com.au/forms>.

How long will it take for my money to be invested

Requests for investments into your Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account received by us before 11am on any working day will usually be processed on that day.

If your request is unable to be processed for any reason (for example if you have provided us with insufficient or incorrect details of your transactional banking account held with an ADI), requests will be processed as soon as reasonably practical after we receive complete or correct information.

We reserve the right to refuse your request to invest in an Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account for any reason. We are not required to advise you of our reasons for any particular decision.

CDF Online Member Access

You can manage your Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account with CDF Online. To be setup on CDF Online you will need to complete the CDF Online Access Request located at <http://www.cdfmn.com.au/forms>

All electronic withdrawals for the Notice Saver Account must be linked to an ADI. The name of the ADI account must match the name on your account. If there is a joint Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account, it will need to be linked to a joint ADI account in the same names.

How to withdraw your money from your Associate Saver Account

You do not need to provide us with any period of notice to withdraw money from your Associate Saver Account.

You can withdraw your money online via CDF Online.

Alternatively, you can request payment from your Associate Saver Account by cheque. Please note the cheque will be issued in the same name as the account holder(s) and will be posted to you.

How to withdraw money from your Notice Saver Account

You must provide at least 31 days' written notice to us if you wish to withdraw any money held in your Notice Saver Account. This means the withdrawal will be processed no earlier than the 32nd day after we receive your written redemption request.

You can withdraw your money online via CDF Online.

However, once set up, your Notice Saver Account will have a 31 days' restriction showing on your account. To withdraw funds online, you will need to complete the Notice of Withdrawal (NOW) process which will alert you to when your funds are available to be able to transfer to your ADI account.

To illustrate, please see the screenshot example to the left.

Notice of Withdrawal (NOW) for CDF members

The process for submitting your Notice of Withdrawal is as follows:

1. Once you have logged onto CDF Online, select your 'Notice Saver' account number from the Accounts Tab - Account List
Applies to 56 or 58 accounts
2. Within the Account Summary tab, click on the Manage Notice button

3. To create a new Notice of Withdrawal, select the Add button on the bottom-right of your Manage Notice of Withdrawal tab. Once clicked, populate the Date and Amount and click Save.

4. Your new Notice of Withdrawal should appear within the Manage Notice of Withdrawal tab. To delete a Notice of Withdrawal, simply click Remove, under the Action column.

Created	Funds Available From	Expiry	Amount	Undrawn	Action
29 AUG 2017	29 SEP 2017	30 OCT 2017	$0.50	$0.50	Remove
5. Once processed, your Notice of Withdrawal will appear within the Notice History section of the page.

If you have any problems please call the CDF Office on 49 791160.

You can also request payment from your Notice Saver Account by cheque by giving us at least 31 days' notice. Please note the cheque will be issued in the same name as the CDF Account Holder and will be posted to you.

Financial Hardship

The requirement to give us at least 31 days' notice for the Notice Saver Account does not apply where the request is to alleviate financial hardship that you are suffering. If you are suffering financial hardship, please contact us so that we may understand your need to withdraw your investment on less than 31 days' written notice. For more information about our hardship policy please go to: <http://www.cdfmn.com.au/about/policies>

Unless you can demonstrate that you are suffering financial hardship, redemption requests are subject to at least 31 days' written notice.

Interest

Interest rates are published at <http://cdfmn.com.au/students-and-parishioners> and <http://cdfmn.com.au/catholic-organisations-and-employees>. The interest payable on your Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account is a variable interest rate and is subject to change.

Interest on the Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account is calculated daily at the daily percentage rate based on the balance in account at the end of each day. The 'daily percentage rate' is the annual interest rate divided by 365. Interest is credited to the account on the last day of each quarter.

What about fees and charges

We do not charge any fees to you for investing in an Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account.

Change in your details

You must promptly notify us if you change your name or address.

Tax File Numbers

You are not obliged to provide us with your Tax File Number (TFN) / TFN exemption or Australian Business Number (ABN). However, if you fail to do so, the Fund is required by law to withhold tax from interest where a TFN, TFN exemption or ABN has not been quoted on an investment, and where interest is payable to a non-resident.

Changes to Terms and Conditions

We may change some of the terms and conditions of your investment with us. We will tell you of the change by publishing the change on our website and on CDF Online no later than the day of change.

3. How to apply for an Associate Saver Account for the Notice Saver Account

You may apply to open a Associate Saver Account or Notice Saver Account by completing our application form available on our website at <http://www.cdfmn.com.au/forms> or by contacting us directly. Please ensure that all fields on our application form are correctly completed. Please ensure that you sign and date our application form.

Your Application must be accompanied by ID documents and signature samples as per the ID requirements specified in the account application form. Investing with the Fund is conditional upon you providing the necessary identification information and the Fund carrying out any necessary verification check(s).

Please see Section 2 (Terms and Conditions) for detailed information on how to invest and use your account. Please note that your application cannot be processed until all of our requirements are met to our satisfaction.

7. Important information

Disclosure

Your investment with the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle Catholic Development Fund ABN 59 728 447 508 (Fund/we/us) will be used to generate a return to the Fund that will be applied to further the charitable works of the Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle. Accordingly, we are required by law to tell you that your investment with us is not comparable to those with banks, finance companies or fund managers.

We have been granted certain exemptions by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

Under these exemptions, we are required by law to tell you:

- § The Fund is not prudentially supervised by APRA. Therefore, an investor in the Fund will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959. Investments in the Fund are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable purposes of the Fund.
- § Investments that the Fund offers are not subject to the usual protections for investors under the Corporations Act 2001 or regulation by ASIC.
- § Investment in the Fund is only intended to attract investors whose primary purpose for making their investment is to support the charitable purposes of the Fund.
- § We have an identification statement which contains information about us which may be viewed at <http://www.cdfmn.com.au/about/regulations>.
- § The Fund does not operate under an Australian Financial Services Licence. The Fund will enter into an intermediary authorisation with an Australian financial services licensee, CDFMN AFSL Limited ABN 74 623 033 830, AFSL No. 504182 which has an authorisation to issue and deal in debentures which will enable the Fund to rely upon the licensing exemption contained in section 911A(2)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001.

The Fund is required by law to tell you that you may be unable to get your money back. However, CDPF Limited, a company established by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, has indemnified the Fund against any liability arising out of a claim by investors in the Fund. In practice, this means your investment is backed by the assets of Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle.

Terms and conditions for your investment are contained in our application forms.
